Effect of the Mob Violence at New Orleans.

SERIOUS TROUBLE FEARED.

The Italian Government Will Demand Redress in Some Form or Other--Indignation Meetings Held in a Number of Different Cities.

WASHINGTON, March 17 .- Dr. T. S. Verdi, of this city, a well known Italian who has been a resident of the United States for forty years, says in connection with the New Orleans lynching: "I do not defend the men who were killed. They were probably a bad lot and may have been guilty of the murder of Chief Hennessy, but that is not the question. They were cleare i under the operation of one of the institutions of civilization, and because they were cleared the people of New Orleans, Americans who glory in civilization, return to one of the worst forms of barbarism. If this angry uprising had occurred at the time of the assassination of Chief Hennessy, there might have been some excuse for it. But four months had elapsed, a trial was had and a verdict rendered. If the people will not abide by the operations of the law as provided, what use is there in courts of justice?

"I was sorry to notice that The Eco d'Itali had issued the manifesto it did. No good will come of agitating the matter. It is extremely cangerous to do so. There is, in my opinion, more back of this murder than appears on the surface. The objection to Italian immigration from certain classes of other Europeans who may have been in this country a few years longer is significant, and raises a grave question that the government may have to deal

"This unpleasantness will give Mr. Blaine a chance to display his diplomatic ability, and let us hope the trouble will not be decided on the 'reciprocity plan.' It is, indeed, a very in-opportune time for a diplomatic battle, the abrogation of friendly relations between Italy and the United States will undoubtedly restrain the latter country from taking part in the world's Columbia fair. The most cautious diplomatic tactics are now necessary on both sides, and Italy will act with measured courtesy and esteem and international dignity toward the United States." States.

in his communication to the Italian government Mr. Blaine also informe 1 it that the president had charged the governor of Louisiana to take enective measures to guard the Italian population of the city of New rleans from further violence and to use every effort to bring the assassins to justice.

The premier also informed the chamber that United States Minister Porter had called upon him to convey the assurance of his government's regret, and to say that he trusted that as a result of explanations the friendly relations existing between Italy and America will be drawn even closer.

When the premier had concluded his statement Deputy Breganz said that a note would be taken of the minister's statement. Deputy Ferras urged that the government demand from the United States indemnities for the families of the victims of the New Orleans

What It Proposes to Do About the Lynching in New Orleans.

LONDON, March 17.—A dispatch from Rome says that the government will take no further action in response to the massacre or Italian subjects at New Orleans, until word has been received from the American government as to its course. The popular fee.ing on the subject in Rome and other cities has not loud and imperative. The news had the effe t, for the time, of stemming the current of partisan animosity, which has been running very high, 10th in the chamber of deputies and outside, and all parties appear united, for the time being, in indignation against America. This is considered, the dispatch says, a disquieting symptom, as the Rudini cabinet may go any length to please the popular sentiment.

it is stated that orders were given yesterday to suspend the directions previously given for diminishing the active force of the navy. The Baron Di Broccheti, naval a tache at I aris, says that the Italian navy is now one of the finest in the world, and could easily block entrance to the Mediterranean to any power except France or England, while sending swift sailing cruise s to every ocean to prey on the commerce of an enemy. As to the Italian commerce, it is largely confined to the Mediterranean. The hai er has shown the deep interest he feels in the naval appropriations by a fine presentation to Herr von Kosielski, a Folish mem er of the reichstag, who in the naval committee zealously and unsuccessfully advocated the grant of the first instalments for the three large new ironciads demanded by the government. The kaiser's gift is a splendid picture representing the fleet of the great elector the first Hohenzollern who ventured to undertake colonial enter-prises. The dedication reads: "To Herr Von Koscielski, in remembrance of his manly attitude in favor of my navy, by his grateful emperor and king."

In the chamber of deputies yesterday
Marquis Di Budini, the Italian prime minister, made a statement with regard to the killing in New Orleans, on Saturday last, of Italian | risoners, who had been acquitted on the charge of having murdered the late Chief Hennessy, of that city. The premier informed the chamber that the Italian government had taken prompt cognizance of the af-fair and had at once placed itself in communication with the American government through the Italian minister at Washington, Baron De Fava. In response to its representations Premier Rudini informed the chamber, the Italian government had received through the American secretary of state, Mr. Blaine, the assurance that Fresident Harrison recognized the right of Italians resident in the united states to the protection of the government and laws of that country. This assurance was accompanied by an expression of the profound regret feit by the president for the unfortunate o currence.

The St. James Ga ette, continuing its comments on the affair, says: "The incident shows that native Americans have not lost the uality of stern reso ution whi h is sometimes dissolved by a life of comfort and luxury in modern society. The men who organized this defiance of formal justice are not ashame of what they have done. They have defeated a society of foreign ruffians who were tying to terrorize a whole city. It is doubt ut it John Bull has enough grit le't in him to protest in as emphatic a manner as the citizens of New Orleans have protested.

AT NEW ORLEANS.

The City Quiet Afrer the Lynching of the Italians.

NEW ORLEANS, March 17 .- There is not the least bit of excitement in the city, matters having resumed the usual routine. Business is going on as usual and a stranger could not guess by out-ward signs that New Orleans had been the scene of a tragedy which startled the

In Father Manoritta's statement he said that he was sure that the letter that he received was from the Provenzana faction of the Mafia. This statemen: Mr. Joseph Provenzano yesterday morning most emphatically denied. He said that his first impulse was to have Father Manoritta arrested and he consulted Chief Gas'erin regarding the matter, and was advised to make a public statement concerning the matter as the chief thought it would do more good.

Provenzano says that he has not been connected with the Ma a in any manner. On the contrary he has been an object of their enmity. "About five years ago," said Provenzano, "the Mafia sent me several letters threatening to kill me and my brother, unless we gave the society $1,000. We did not respond, and Jim Caruso shortly afterwards came to me and said that he belonged to the society, an i that we had better pay the money. He said that I could do so by going to the old lake and bandag ng my head with a red handkerchief and leaving the money on a stump in the swamp near by. I was then to go about my business and they would get the money. then went to some of my friends, whom I met under the St. Charles hotel, Jung Davy, Pat. Meally and Ralph Morgan being the number, and they said not to pay it: that they would go with me in a wagon to see who was there to receive it. Jim Caruso, who was along, said that this would not do. 'If you go with a crowd,' said he, 'no one will appear.' I then dropped the matter and told Caruso o have nothing more to do with the society, to give up his fruit stand in the French market and come on the levee and we would make him a free man. He said he would do so, as he was tired of the Mafia, having recentry been selected on a committee to kill some one.

A clerk in the office of the registrar of voters, said yesterday afternoon that he had examined the registrat on books for the purpose of a certaining the allegian e of the men exe uted by the people on Saturday, and that he found that every one of them was a registered voter of the city of New Orleans.

The flight of Foreman Seligman, of the jury, is looked upon with suspicion by the publi, and it is put down as proof of guilt. It has been ascertained that the whole jury was not bought, but that the majority of them were recipients of money from the nine defendants. Mr. Mackey, one of the jurors, and the only one who has called for an investigation, says that five of the jury acted suspiciously, and six of the twelve, he among the number, stood out for the conviction of Macheca, Scoffedi and Monastero, and finding that the others would not agree with them, a mistrial was agreed on as to those three.

Governor Nicholls sent an answer to Secretary Blaine last night. He refused to make it public until notified that the secretary had received it. The grand jury will further examine into the alleged bribery of jurors. Thomas Mc-Christal, who was indicted a few days ago, was taken from prison to the district attorney's office yesterday and was closeted with that official for some time. It is generally believed that McChristal has made a confession in the matter, but the officials decline to state the nature of their business with the prisNo Mafia in Buffilo.

Buffalo, March 17.—The massacre of the eleven Italians at New Orleans on Saturday has created considerable interest among the Italians of this city. A mass meeting of the Italian residents of Buffalo has i een called for on Thursday night. The Italian colony numbers about 12,000 people and nearly all are residents of the city and are naturali ed

Mr. A. J. ishell, a prominent Italian attorney said yesterday evening: "The Maña are not Italians: they are Sicilains and are only governed by italy by right of con uest. There is not a single Mafia in Buffalo out of the pennitentiary and there is a forfeit of $5,500 up now for the production of one such man in our midst.

A Bit. Feeling Existing.

KANSAS CITY, March 17.-There is a bitter feeling of denunciation among the Italian residents of this city over Saturday's tragedy at New Orleans. They gathered in groups all day and freely discussed the matter. They are a unit in demand ng that the talian government take immediate cogni ance of the affair and the American government te made to make suitable reparation.

In Omaha.

OMAHA, March 17.-A meeting of the leading Italians of this city was held yesterday and resolutions were passed condemning the lynching at New Orleans. Malettie Guiseppi, presider i of the society, emphatically declared that while the organization did not indorse the Mala it deprecated mon violence. The Mafia, however, has sympathizers in Omaha. After the murder of Chief of Folice Hennessy appeals were sent out by the accused men for aid from their countrymen everywhere. Omaha Italians responded liberally, and only a week ago $300 was sent from this city to the accused. The par icipants in yester lay's meeting deny all knowledge of this and allege that they furnished no part of the contribution

Newspaper Comments.

SAN ERANCISCO, March 17. - The Chronicle commenting on the New Orleans tragedy, says: Although lyn h law is always to be deplored, if vigilant vengeance was ever defensible it certainly was in the case of the people of New Orleans.

The Call says it may be that these Sicilians should have been found guilty, but the facts ought to have been clearly established and "leading citizens" would be justified in taking the law into their own hands.

The Examiner says the massacre cannot be defended in cold blood. Every man accused of crimes has a right to legal tria, but this right is reduced to mockery if that trial must have only one result.

PITTSBURG, March 17.—Steps were taken last night to arrange a mass meeting to denounce and protest in the name of 12,000 Italians residing in Pittsburg, Allegheny county and neighboring industrial towns against the massacre of their countrymen in New Orleans. A Hero Indeed.

There is a man in Atchison who is a hero, though if you should call him one mouth yester ay almost in time to leave The weight of years may bend me, but my soul he would scarcely know what the word meant. His wife recently died and left him with eight children. He labors hard by the day and manages his housework after night. After doing a hard day's work he will begin the family washing, to be finished and hung on the line next morning, the ironing to be done the second night. He could not afford a sewing woman, so he has, by constantly trying, learned to run a machine and cut and fit.

The oldest girl is growing up, and will be a great help to him in a few years. His little children are sent to school every day, and they appear as neatly and comfortably dressed as any in the school. He did not scatter his family among his relatives nor send them to an orphan asylum. He kept them together, and their home is almost as comfortable as it was when the mother was alive. He is a hero, and the greatest kind of a hero, from the fact that he does not realize that he is a hero at all.—Atchison Globe.

A NEW-STYLE PROPELLER Which the Inventor Ctaims Will Revolutionize Ocean T avel. BALTIMORE, March 17.—Ship builders and marine men will this week be permitted to inspect the strange looking steamer Howard Cassard, which Mr. Eyer, the inventor, asserts will revolu-tionize ocean travel. The shaft and propeller will be adjusted, giving the visitors an opportunity to see in place a four-bladed screw, each blade of which is set on a different line of rotation or in spiril order, increasing the pitch toward the stern, as compared with preceding blade or blades.

The object is to embody in a single screw as much surface as now exists in a twin screw-driver by the same amount of power. The inventor asserts that this feature of the vessel is an experiment. The dock trial of the vessel will take place about April 15.
